Opportunity College, The Royal Borough's Recovery College

Opportunity College provides innovative educational and learning opportunities for people in the Royal Borough who have mental ill illnesses. It is based on a recovery model and promotes joint working between service users, carers and Staff. The goal of a recovery college is to empower people to become experts in their own recovery. All students of Opportunity College choose their learning pathway and are supported to discover their resourcefulness, develop new skills (or improve existing ones) and self-manage their mental health condition. The aim for someone engaging with this service is for them to take positive steps in their recovery journey. Guidance and support is offered throughout.

For more information please contact Opportunity College at: Community Mental Health Team, Floor 4, Nicholson House, Nicholson Walk, Maidenhead SL6 1LD.
